ROAD-BRIDGE FUND CONTROVERSY BEGINS

Re-allocation Asked

Judge Says More Study Needed

After swearing in county officials for their new terms, activities at the Randall County Commissioners' court meeting got into full swing.

B. R. Jones, only new face in county government circles, took his seat as commissioner of precinct 1 and forced a tie vote on county judge Wayland Angel.

The group voted 2-2 on road and bridge fund reallocations. At the last meeting C. Y. Johnson, commissioner of precinct 4, was the only man voting against a proposition which would put the road and bridge fund on a mileage basis.

He reopened the matter Tuesday with a motion to allocate the fund "to various precincts in direct proportion as to the origin." Jones seconded the motion.

Clarence Beckman of precinct 2 and Glenn Dowlen of precinct 3 went against the proposition and Angel was faced with the tie.

Jones asked him if he was going to break it or just leave the matter as it was.

Angel told commissioners he didn't feel like it was his position to tell them how to spend the money or how it is to be allocated. "I'm going to leave the vote tied until we know what we're doing," he told Jones.

Dowlen asked Johnson if he thought he could spend all that money in his precinct on rural roads.

"We've got right-of-way for a loop to buy and right-of-way for an overpass to buy," Johnson replied.

"I'd just say that so far as the benefit of the county is concerned that this would be throwing us back to prehistoric ages," Beckman commented.

Beckman wondered how towns are going to grow in relation to agriculture and schools if tax money is kept close to sources.

E. T. Cummings, county auditor, asked if commissioners would agree on budgeting the road and bridge fund ($300,000) instead of setting a certain per cent for use in each precinct.

"It looks like with all four of you watching the fund instead of each one watching his own, it would last longer," Cummings said.

No final action was taken on distribution of the fund. Last year 30 per cent went to each of the northern precincts and 20 per cent went to each of the southern precincts.

Jones said he would like to reopen the matter of tax equalization and J. W. McMorries appeared to explain a ratio study which the court received at its last meeting.

He told commissioners he had made the study some time ago and it was not made to push Randall County into an equalization program.

"We might use this study in some other county," McMorries pointed out.

McMorries report showed that city property valued from $4,000 to $10,000 was assessed at an average percentage of 18.48, based on consideration of sale. Assessment percentages ranged from 2.5 to 38.2.

City property valued from $10,000 to $15,000 was assessed at 19.82 per cent. These percentages ranged from 15.91 to 27.77.

City property valued from $15,000 to $20,000 was assessed at an average of 19.88 per cent. These percentages ranged from 15.87 to 28.69.

In the $20,000 to $30,000 bracket the average assessment was 17.41 per cent. Percentage values ranged from 10.88 to 24.28.

In the $30,000 up bracket and what McMorries classified as "luxury homes" average per cent of assessment dropped to 13.5. These assessment percentages ranged from 7.98 to 23.31.

His ratio study showed average assessment percentage for rural property was 6.68.

The ratio study pointed out "there can be no question but what the urban property owners are paying the biggest share of the taxes in Randall County. In fact, urban property owners are paying above 50 per cent more taxes, based on market values, than are the rural property owners."

McMorries said his firm would charge about $30,000 for a complete study of Randall county and suggested a "keep up" contract at less than $3,000 a year to keep the system up to date.

COUNTY OFFICIALS were sworn in at the Tuesday meeting of the commissioners' court. Above, county clerk T. H. Lair swears in county judge Wayland Angel, commissioners B. R. Jones and Glenn Dowlen. Jones was the only person newly-elected to office in the 1960 elections.

Group Applies for Charter For 'Randall County Bank'

Application for a charter for a state bank in Canyon was filed Tuesday in Austin with the state banking commission.

This information came this week from R. E. Lewis, who has been named to be managing officer of the new bank should it become a reality.

Lewis said definite word on the fate of the proposed bank probably will be heard before March 1. He said final decision by the commission will not come until after a public hearing has been held.

Proposed capital of the new bank is $150,000 with a surplus of $100,000 and reserves of $50,000. Proposed directors are W. T. Oliver, Irving F. SoRelle, Robert W. Foster, Clarence Beckman, Morris Hill and R. E. Lewis.

Lewis is correspondent for the organizing institution, the name of which is Randall County Bank. W. T. Oliver is projected as chairman of the board and Lewis is the proposed managing officer.

Morris Hill at present is president of Farmers State Bank at Leuders and formerly was with banks in Odessa and Abilene. He is proposed vice-president and cashier of the new bank.

Randall County Bank is depicted by its organizers as a community bank. Lewis said more than 100 stockholders have subscribed to capital stock of the bank. He said 95 percent of that number live in the Canyon community.

Organizers have announced plans to erect a new bank building in Canyon. Building, furniture, fixtures and equipment will cost more than $150,000, Lewis reported.

Date for investigation of the application by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the Banking Department has not been set. Neither has any date been set for hearing before the banking board.

Ex-Resident Dies in Lubbock

Final rites for a former Canyon man, W. C. Myers of Lubbock, were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Lubbock Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Burial was in a Lubbock cemetery.

Myers, 53 years of age, died early Tuesday morning after an illness of over a year. His condition had been steadily worse since August.

Survivors include his wife, the former Eunice Bozart of Canyon. A sister, Mrs. R. E. Chambers, lives at Umbarger. Myers was born and was married in Canyon.

Myers was the nephew of T. J. Myers of Canyon, and the cousin of E. M. Myers and Milton Myers, both of Canyon.

No final action was taken on

Water District Members to Be Named

Qualified voters of Randall County will select Tuesday a district director and two county committeemen for office in the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District 1.

T. L. Sparkman, Jr., of Hereford, is bidding for re-election as district director.

Voters in commissioner's precinct 2 will decide between Leonard Batenhorst, Route 1, Canyon, and Ed Wieck, Route 1, Canyon. Winner will replace county committeeman James B. Dietz of Route 2, Happy.

W. A. (Bill) Patke, Canyon, is the outgoing committeeman in precinct 4. He will be replaced by either Lewis A. Tuck or Bruce Winn, both of Route 1, Canyon.

All qualified voters who reside within the bounds of the water district may vote in this election. The poll-tax receipt used for voting in the recent general election will be used for the water district election.

Voting places are at the V. F. W. Hall in Canyon, the Ralph Switch Grain Company at Ralph Switch, and the schoolhouse in Umbarger.

Jr. Livestock Show Predicted 'Best Ever'

The fourteenth annual Randall County Junior Livestock Show is going to be one of the "biggest and best ones on record," officials predicted this week for the January 13-14 show.

Show is scheduled to be held at the city barn in Canyon. All livestock will be weighed January 13 and actual judging starts at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, January 14.

"Judging should be completed by noon or shortly after," Richmond Hales, general superintendent said. The annual sale will follow.

Darrell Renfro from Dumas will judge swine, lambs and steers this year. He was an animal husbandry major while in college and was a member of an intercollegiate judging team. Renfro has recently served as judge at several county shows and is in the commercial hog business. He has also served in the extension service in Moore County.

Judge for the horses has not yet been announced. Due to insufficient room at the city barn, horses will not be brought to the barn until Saturday morning, Hales said.

Several committee chairmen have given good reports, according to Otis Parker, president of the association.

Crosswalks To Be Built on 4th Avenue

City commissioners Thursday night approved crosswalks on 4th Avenue in front of Randall and Brown dormitories.

Action followed a request by Virgil Henson, business manager of the college. The crosswalks are to be installed and maintained by the highway department.

Payment for the new fire-truck was postponed until all contracted equipment is received.

Kenneth Clark, operator of a cleaning shop on 4th Avenue requested removal of curbing in front of his shop so that a drive-in window can be installed. Commissioners denied the request.

Action on plastic pipe in the city water system was tabled until a later meeting.

Commissioners decided to stand behind tax certificates issued by the city. They had been advised that city governments are not bound by a tax certificate as are state and county units.

County agent John Brazz said two Randall County boys have already purchased small calves for the 1962 show.

T. A. Black, chairman of the membership committee reports that money to run this year's show is now assured. Duane Howard, secretary-treasurer, said he expected to have 250 paid members when final results are tabulated.

Bill Wilson, heading a special building finance committee reports several nice contributions. He intends to have a very active group of workers as his assistants, Parker said.

Wilson said his committee intends to see that a new exhibition building in construction in time to house the 1962 show.

Number of fat steers in this year's show is expected to be somewhat larger than last year. About 18 steers are expected, Hales said. Lamb and swine numbers will run about the same.

County agent John Brazz said two Randall County boys have already purchased small calves for the 1962 show.

ONE MAN DIED Friday when a tractor he was loading silage with, overturned and landed on top of him. Tentatively identified as Lewis Holmes, the FBI is checking fingerprints for positive identification. Holmes was killed on the Norman Glenn dairy farm just north of Canyon.

'60 News Briefs Show Fast Pace for County

While national headlines catered to Kennedy, Castro, Chessman and racial sit-ins during 1960, Randall County news reflected Roy Joe Stevens, bond issues and the expressway opening.

Stevens, county judge, turned in his resignation March 31, following the public hearings by the House General Investigations committee which accused him of various unethical and immoral acts. Judge W. J. Flescher filled this post temporarily, until Wayland Angel was elected in the Democratic runoff.

First disaster of the year was January 20 when a family of five was wiped out on the Washington Street-railroad intersection.

Dr. Robert Lee Brown and his family were killed when their car was struck by a train. He was a veterinarian.

The 1960 census also was big news for part of the year. Conducted in the spring final figures released in November set Canyon's count at 5,864. The county's total was 33,913.

Weather affected news of 1960, also. Lakes were filled, crops were the best in years, and grasslands came back with renewed growth. And it brought floods and damages to the area.

Palo Duro state park was heavily damaged June 10 when Stockton Dam broke due to heavy waters.

A water wall 25 to 35 feet deep and 100 to 200 yards wide swept through the canyon taking approximately 80 per cent of the cottonwood trees and damaging all of the 250 picnic tables. One person at the park estimated it would take from 50 to 75 years for the trees to come back.

Buffalo Lake opened April 30 after being closed to fishermen for a year. Rough fish had been removed from the lake.

Fumes Ruin Holiday

The Gene Murray family and a house guest were overcome by fumes New Year's eve.

House guest was Jo Anne Hill of Borger.

Mrs. Murray said a plumber told them the carbon monoxide fumes was forced back into the house by a strong wind Saturday night.

The Murrys discovered the fumes when the baby Jeffrey Scott woke up sick. When the parents got up with him, they realized they were sick, too, and called for aid.

All four were taken to Neblett Hospital, where they were hospitalized New Year's Day.

City Delivery Extended

City delivery has been extended to include Pioneer Estates and a portion of 3rd Avenue north of the college campus, according to Marion Higdon, postmaster.

Effective date of the extension is January 7, Higdon said. This is the first extension of city mail delivery since January 1960. At that time some fringe areas were added.

Higdon said to qualify for city delivery an area must have at least 50 per cent of the area occupied by residences, paving or completed sidewalks, and must have mail boxes and house numbers.

and it was restocked with game fish. Bob Darnell, Department of Interior resident supervisor of the lake, predicted fishing will continue to improve for the next two years.

Bond issues for $350,000 to be used for loop construction around the southeast edge of Amarillo and overpass right-of-way for the Washington Street crossing, were defeated in a September 17 election. In December, commissioners were approached on the possibility of purchasing right-of-way for the overpass with available funds.

Formal ceremonies marking the opening of the Canyon-Amarillo expressway were held December 1. Also, the night school of West Texas State College is to be moved to Canyon for the first time this coming spring semester.

Final headline of the year noted the apprehension of three killers by sheriff L. S. "Slim" Johnston and deputy sheriff Ray Tinsley. The three men shot down a Tulsa law enforcement officer at the scene of a burglary and attempted to escape through Randall County.

The year 1960 marked a building growth in the city of Canyon approaching boom proportions. Permits granted for residences passed the $1 million mark and no let off is in sight.

Husband of Local Woman Buried in La.

Military funeral services for 1st Lt. Rosseau J. Tatman Jr., 29, were held at 10 a.m. Saturday in Opelousas, Louisiana. He was the husband of the former Suzanne Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Owens of Canyon.

Lieutenant Tatman was killed in a jet fighter plane crash December 27. Air Force officials are investigating the crash of the F100 to determine the cause.

Military services were also held at 3 p.m. Thursday in Immanuel Presbyterian Church in Albuquerque. Burial was

A chore to do this month is to water all trees, shrubs, lawn, and ornamental plants used around homes for landscape purposes. These perennial plants stop growing during the winter months but their cell activity never ceases. A small amount of water is used every day. Evergreen trees especially now should be watered. The foliage should be rinsed off at the same time. Most of the winter killing will occur within the next two months. If the soil is moist and the plants are not dehydrated this winter freeze damage can often be prevented. Plants are often dehydrated by a hard freeze. Lawns benefit from a thorough watering at this time of the year.

Colorful seed catalogs are now coming through the mail. Some very delightful winter evenings can be spent selecting seeds and plants for next year's garden. It seems every year the quality of vegetables improve and there will be several new varieties to try this time. Flower lovers have a wide assortment of seed and stock to choose from.

Randall County has many garden enthusiasts. Mrs. Max P. Hoffman never fails to have a good garden. Ed Bourn grows some of the best squash and turnips in the county each year. George Shepard of Happy does a very good job. There are some town people who love to grow

Canyon News Special Issue Out Saturday

In order to promote dollar day shopping in Canyon, The Canyon News will print a Dollar Day special edition this week end.

Such an edition will be published each month as long as the demand exists.

Publisher Troy Martin said the Dollar Day edition may well be the forerunner to a semi-weekly in Canyon. "As most people understand, a newspaper is supported by the advertising it is able to sell," Martin explained. "If the merchants of Canyon express a need for a twice-a-week media, then the community shall have one."

A number of merchants will be using The News pages to advertise year-end clearance of merchandise. Many bargains await those who shop The Canyon Dollar Day special edition.

First Traffic Fatality

Randall County's first traffic fatality for the new year was recorded January 1 when Thomas Lynch Barnes died in a Lubbock hospital.

Barnes was turning off the highway at the time of the accident. Both men were brought to Neblett Hospital and Barnes was later carried to Lubbock where he died.

ARNOLD PRICHARD, Mgr.

Canyon 6th Graders Win National Contest

Sixth grade class in Canyon Junior High School has captured first place in a national "Classroom Picture Project Contest." Prize is $100 cash. Taught by Mrs. William R. Wilson, the language class won on a project entitled "Let Us Spell to the Moon." "I was certainly surprised!" Mrs. Wilson said Thursday when she was notified of the achievement. "I had sent the entry in in June, and I got a letter in September, saying we were in the finals. I had thought that was all we'd hear of it," she continued.

Joe A. Gibson, superintendent of schools, said the money would be used to purchase needed equipment for fifth and sixth grade classes.

In the project, each of the 26 pupils had his own rocket, bearing his picture, which he rode into outer space. At the beginning of the race, each rocket was placed on a launching pad on earth.

Each child needed an "A" on one daily lesson and a one hundred on his Friday final spelling test or he must have improved at least 15 points over the week before, thus providing for individual differences, Mrs. Wilson said.

Progress in flight was made by similar achievements each week.

Each jump represented 20,000 miles of progress.

Pat Britain made the school pictures used on the rocket.

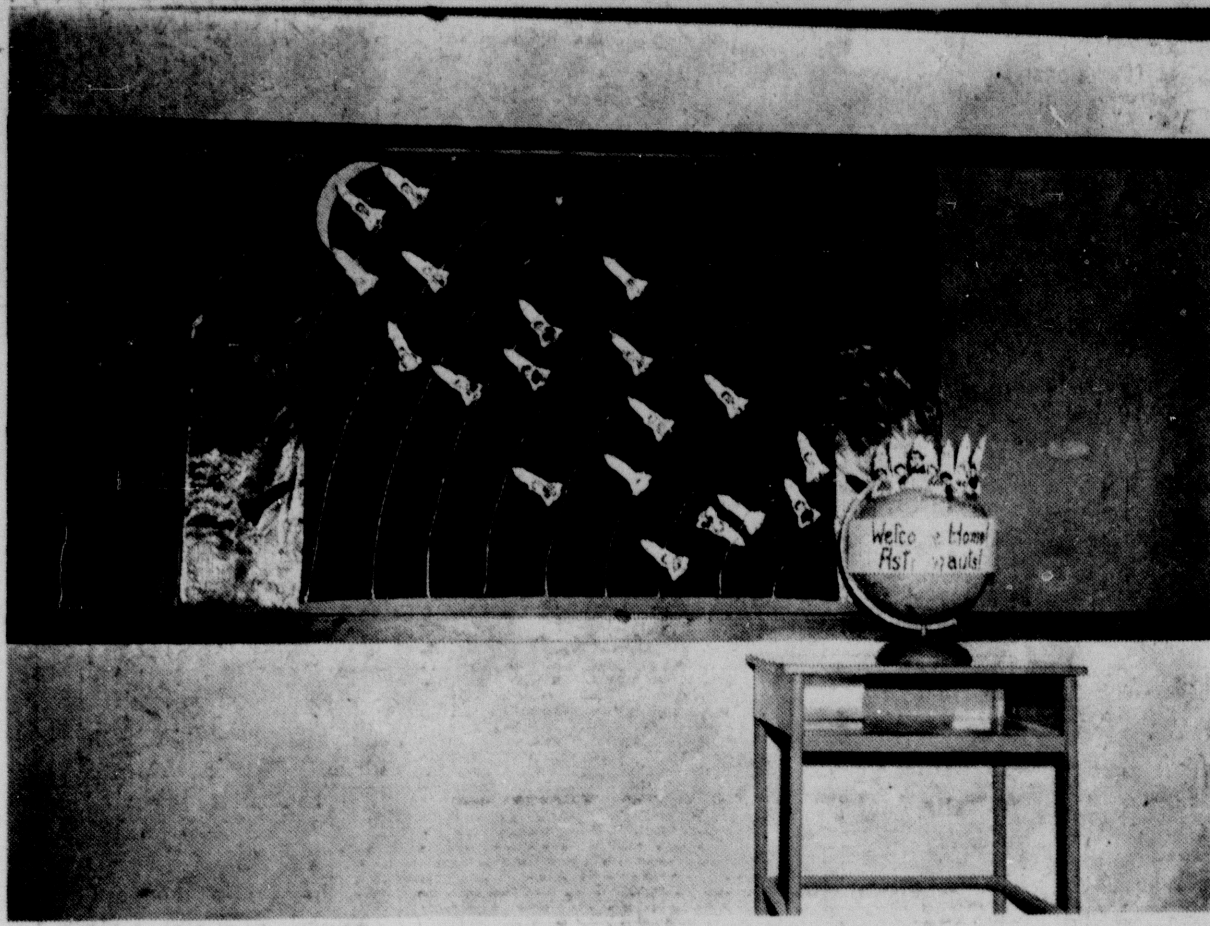

According to comments of the judges, the Canyon project "stimulated more incentive than most others. Another superior feature was that this project sustained interest and incentive over a considerable period of time."

"In addition, the requirements were exacting enough to require the students to really do their best."

Only other Texas school placing in the contest was a Spearman second grade class, which received an honorable mention.

Second place, along with a $50 prize, went to "A Race for the Moon" entered by the second grade of St. Mary School Menasha, Wisconsin. Council Bluffs, Iowa, seventh and eighth grade class in St. Peters School won third with "Busy Bees." Their prize was a camera kit.

Mrs. Wilson has taught sixth grade language arts and music classes at Canyon Junior High for the past three years. She is a member of the National Educational Association, the Randall County Unit of Texas State Teachers Association, the Canyon Classroom Teachers Association, the Delta Kappa Gamma International Honorary Society for Teachers.

PRIZE WINNING project for the Canyon 6th graders is this exhibit entitled "Let Us Spell to the Moon." Each pupil had his own rocket, bearing his picture, and was entitled to move his rocket one jump each time he met certain academic titles. As shown by the picture, several of the pupils were able to make a round trip to the moon.

BY MRS. J. W. WESLEY

Happy New Year to all the news staff of the Randall County News.

We had a very nice time with the children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren at Lubbock and Brownfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Gauthreaux and Patricia Nan returned to El Paso Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Shipman returned to Camp Ord, California, where he is stationed, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Wesley, Mrs. Ella Hext, and Ed Turner left Thursday for Fort Worth, where they planned to attend the rodeo and fat stock show. They planned to return Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Troye Langston and Jimmy went to Paris Thursday night. They just got there in time to attend the funeral of an uncle, so their visit was spoiled by a death in the family.

Robert Langston is moving to Wayside, where he will work for Harvey Newsom.

Mrs. John Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wesley, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shipman were all on the sick list Sunday.

Those enjoying lunch with the Charles Wilson family Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Pete and Maria Garcia, and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wesley.

The occasion was the celebration of the seventh birthday of Vickie Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Prosser and children visited Tuesday evening with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wesley, and the H. H. Shipmans.

Our pastor, Brother Lew Allen, has received word he will be transferred to the Far East soon. He will be assigned either to Okinawa or Korea, and he will be with us only two more Sundays. Then he will offer his resignation to take effect immediately as he has to be in California the 23. We sure hate to see him and his family go, but, since he is a chaplain in the army, he has no choice. He will be gone one or two years. Our prayers are with him and his family, who will stay in Amarillo with the hope they can join him some time in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Thompson spent the holidays at Rock Port down on the coast. They report fishing was not good because it was too wet. They returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Wilson returned from Georgetown and Austin, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wilson and Mrs. Wilson's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Wesley entertained friends and relatives in their home Christmas day. Turkey and all the trimmings and wild duck were served to the guests by the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wesley visited Christmas eve with their

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Zello of Borger and their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Dumas, also of Borger, visited recently with their son and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Zello and family of Canyon. The Borger couples also visited with Mrs. Mary Burtz.

MRS. RONALD D. CROW

Nancy Ann Burks Marries Ronald D. Crow Dec. 27

In a double ring ceremony read Tuesday, December 27, Miss Nancy Ann Burks became the bride of Ronald D. Crow in the First Baptist Church in Littlefield.

Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Canyon, officiated at the ceremony, read at 7 p.m.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burks of Littlefield, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Crow of Canyon.

Candlelight ceremony was read before an improvised altar of emerald foliage, with standards holding large bouquets of white mums, and an archway entwined with smilax, mums, wedding bells, and satin ribbon. Background was of nine bracht tree candelabra holding cathedral tapers.

White aisle carpets were used with tall bracht candelabra and white satin rope outlined the bridal aisle.

Mrs. Farrell Devenport of Canyon sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer." Gracie Russell played the organ and chimes on the hour.

Maid-of-honor was Miss Janice Kay Burks, sister of the bride, and attendants were Mrs. Rita Jo Neal of Hobbs, New Mexico, Mrs. Rex Loftis of Canyon, and Miss Nita Jo Masengale of Hoover.

They wore red chiffon velvet dresses, styled with a full skirt and fitted bodice with elbow length sleeves and scooped neckline. They wore hats of the same material.

Each attendant carried a basket of white ball mums and white snapdragons enhanced with silver fern held by a white satin ribbon.

Candlelighters were Phyllis Jefferies of Littlefield and Vondell Germany of Petersburg.

Flower girl was Darline Crow, niece of the bridegroom, who wore a white taffeta dress with a basque waist, and full bouffant skirt. She carried a white basket.

Ringbearer was Bobby Joe Neal, nephew of the bridegroom. Best man was Don Briggs of Canyon. Groomsman were Larry Brandon, George Snapp, and Don Britain, all of Canyon. Sharing the ushering duties were A. L. Pruitt and Roy Hunter of Canyon; Bill Burks, Littlefield; and Benny Bickel, Muleshoe.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of ivory de soie and Alencon lace designed with a figurine bodice featuring a circlet neckline edged in pearl, embroidered lace motif, and long sleeves tapering to points below the wrists. The bell shaped skirt was appliqued at intervals with lace etched in pearls and sequins. The skirt swept to the back to form a chapel train and was enhanced at the waistline with a fan shaped fringed bow.

Her veil was imported ivory illusion caught to a pearl coronet defined with pearl tear-drops and cascading in tiers below the waist.

The bride carried a white Bible topped with white orchid and Frenched carnations trimmed with pearls and tufted silver net, held by satin streamers.

Mrs. Burks, mother of the bride, wore a light blue wool outfit, with a blue flowered hat, blue shoes, white gloves and corsage. Mrs. Crow was attired in winter white brocade satin with gold and white accessories and gold and white corsage.

A reception followed in the church parlor.

Table was laid with a floor length white satin cloth with an over drape of net banded in satin. Garlands of smilax caught with white ribbon encircled the table. An arrangement of white ball mums, snapdragons, and Frenched carnations with fern, flanked by tall white tapers, centered the table.

Wedding cake was three tiered white, topped by miniature bride and bridegroom figurines.

Table appointments in crystal and silver were used. Mrs.

SOCIETY NOTES

Have you broken your New Year's resolutions yet?

Almost everyone makes some sort of resolution. In fact those who don't make resolutions are those who wear rose colored glasses and don't realize the need for change.

The fact that resolutions may be almost identical with resolutions of past years only points up the human frailty.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sparkman and children returned Thursday after spending the holiday with her mother, Mrs. Pearl Griffin, in Lawton, Oklahoma.

MISS HARRIET ANN McCauley of Pleasant Hill, California, became the bride of Robert Eugene (Bob) Zachry in a recent ceremony. A former Canyon resident, Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Zachry of Concord, California, and was a 1958 graduate of Canyon High School. The couple are at home at 2248 Galindo Street in Concord.

Bill Burks, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Fred Loflin presided at the bride's table.

For the wedding trip to points of interest in New Mexico and Colorado Springs, the bride chose an apricot and black wool suit, with black accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will make their home in Canyon.

Mrs. Crow received her B.S. degree from West Texas State College in 1959, where she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha, national social sorority. Mr. Crow, a graduate of Canyon High School, is a student at WT.

He is associated with his father in the grocery and cattle business.

A rehearsal dinner was held Monday at 8 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burks in Littlefield with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Crow as host and hostess.

The tables were laid with white, centered by white tapers held by net and white fern with streamers holding wedding bells. Tables were strewn with rice. Place cards were a pair of miniature white shoes bearing the names, "Nancy and Ronald."

Twenty-four persons were served.

COOK'S CORNER

Mrs. Piner Stevens, 806 4th street, has exchanged her favorite recipes this week with the readers of the Canyon News. The dressing recipe is a special favorite of hers cause it is the recipe her mother used. She was unable to find the recipe in any cook book for many years, and didn't make the dressing enough to trust her memory for ingredients. Mrs. Stevens finally found the recipe in a leaflet prepared by an electrical company.

SOUTHERN DRESSING

Soak:
6 cups cornbread crumbs.
4 cups biscuit or light bread crumbs in
4 cups stock, milk, or water

Saute in hot fat until golden brown:
1 1/2 cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped celery-part leaves

Combine crumbs and onion mixture with 4 eggs, well beaten
2 teaspoons salt
1 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon poultry seasoning

Add, to thoroughly moisten:
4 cups stock, milk or water (approximately).

Mix well. Stuff bird, or cook in separate pan in moderate oven 350 degree for 45 minutes. (Enough for 12 pound bird.)

Note: To obtain stock, cook giblets in water to cover. Use stock for dressing and giblets for gravy.

Mrs. Stevens says the next recipe is quick and easy, tastes good, and is nutritious. ALL-IN-ONE SKILLET DINNER

2 tablespoons fat
1 cup chopped onion
1/2-1 pound ground beef
1 cup sliced carrots
4 oz. medium noodles
1 quart water (one 13 ounce can mushroom soup for part of liquid)
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
Parsley.

Melt fat in skillet. Add onion and beef and cook until brown, about 10 minutes. Add carrots, noodles, and water with soup, salt, pepper, and Worcestershire sauce added. Sprinkle parsley over top. Cover and cook over low heat 45 minutes.

Mrs. M. J. Rogers and Mrs. Marion Higdon were in charge of the bride's book.

Nuptial plans were revealed by a large centerpiece arrangement of brown lace carnations centered with an improvised clock face in gold and white showing the names "Beverly and Alan" and the date. Brown tapers in single candle sticks flanked the arrangement.

Coffee, individual cakes topped with green and champagne flowers, mints and nuts were served. Silver service and appointments were used.

Serving table was laid with champagne silk over taffeta, with the skirt caught up into a drape festooned with flowers. Dr. Leta Boswell and Mrs. Bernard Warren alternated at the table.

Friends of the family made up the house party. They were Mrs. James P. Cornette, Mrs. Walter Graham, Mrs. E. J. Cundiff, Mrs. John Hammond, Mrs. Charles Wright, Mrs. A. B. Holt, Mrs. Jack Taylor, Mrs. W. M. Higdon, Mrs. Nolon Henson, Jr., Mrs. Beulah Sykes of Amarillo, Miss Gayle Welch, Miss Sylvia Henson of Midland, and Miss Alice Ann Douglas of Sunray.

Each year at Christmas time, almost everyone seems to receive cards from people with a nice friendly, warm message. It is one of the things that makes card sending so important, because these little notes of news from people you seldom see make the true meaning of Christmas shine forth more brightly.

We heard from Helen Ball who used to live in Canyon and now lives in Germany. Her husband is Major H. P. Ball and was connected with the ROTC at WT when they made their home here. She took an interest in many things in Canyon and now she writes home that she reads the Canyon paper and enjoys it very much.

It is nice to know that someone so far away at Christmas time still takes a very active interest in Canyon and sends a cheery message back to us. I'm sure that her young family had a very merry Christmas there, too. I could almost see their smiling faces!

Then from the David Kaplans came a letter telling all about their new home in Canada. David Kaplan was formerly Acting Head of the Department of Music of WT.

They had a funny story to relate and it was quite a mystery. It seems that when all their possessions had finally reached Canada, their box of paintings were missing. Sometime, someplace, the package disappeared completely. The express company declared it had checked off every parcel on their list but this package was missing. None of the paintings were famous works so the mystery still exists!!!!

ART ODDITY FOR THE WEEK.

A few years ago, a painting by Jackson Pollack could have been purchased for a few dollars. But recently on an Omnibus program on television, when past events of 1960 were being reviewed, it was announced that this same painting was sold for $100,000!

There does seem to be a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow after all!!!!

Happy New Year Everyone! My year started off as a specially Happy One!

RECORD RAMBLINGS

by Capres

It has been my impression that stereo records have been of a much higher quality in recent months. A year ago about the only consistently good technical recordings were produced by London. Angel has a distinguished history and generally produced high quality recordings, although occasionally bringing one out with a terrible surface sound. Surprisingly Columbia records tended to be very noisy and to not wear well at all. RCA Victor was a notch higher. A few Deutsch Gramophone releases found their way into the Texas Panhandle and were quite good. The Russians are now in the market with the Artia lable which is technically poor. Capitol is quite irregular. Their extra price, full dimensional sound, SAL series were frequently stupendous. Their old monaural "Further Studies in High Fidelity" and "Capitol of the World," and a few others still have some of the best sound going despite five years and many score playings. Mercury tends to have a superficial, super brilliant sound on their better records. I do not know about Decca's popular recordings, but their classical ones are usually noisy and do not last well. As I have mentioned before Command records are tremendous in their sound, with Medallion and Audio Fidelity fairly closely following.

My wife, strictly on her own, bought "Music for Non-Thinkers," featuring the so-called Guckenhimer Sour Kraut Band, RCA Victor LSP-1721. Needless to say they play the German Band repertoire perfectly atrociously. I do have to admit there is a rather horrible fascination and it is a surprising lot of good clean fun. My record man finally got a copy of Angel S-35768 recording of "Russian Easter Overture," "A Night on the Bare Mountain," and excerpts from Borodin's "Prince Igor". These are popular Russian classics played by the Philharmonia Orchestra, Lovro Von Matacic conducting. The sound and the stereo is spectacular. These usually popular pieces are played with style and gusto throughout.

Eugene Ormandy and the Philadelphia Orchestra have recorded the Tchaikovsky fifth and sixth symphonies in new stereo and mono versions. The old versions were my favorites of the pre-stereo days, and I happy to report they are excellent in the new versions with their better recorded sound. I happen to like the big, full, romantic, lush sound of the Philadelphia Orchestra and

Mr. Ormandy. If you do too, these are four you. The Pathatque is Columbia MS6160. I do not have the Columbia number for the fifth.

A few days ago I ran into an European recorded tape of 9 of the Brahms "Hungarian Dances" and 4 of the Dvorak "Slavonic Dances". These are popular, tuneful pieces of great melody and spirit. They are played by the Bamberg Symphony Orchestra, Jonel Perlea conducting. The tape is Tandbert S-14. These are four track stereo recordings with a great stereo sound. Incidentally, Tandberg exports a tape recorder of great quality to the United States. At the same time I bought a four track tape of London records entitled "Es-pana", and played by the London Symphony Orchestra, Ataulfo Argenta conducting. Selections are "Capriccio Espagnol"; Rimsky Korsakov; "Andalusia," Granados; "Es-pana Rapsody," Chamberrier; "Spanish Dances", Moszkowski. The playing of this collection of popular classics in the Spanish mood is with the proper dash and spirit; and the recorded sound is almost up to the Tandberg tape. The number is London LCL-80014. If you read this column even occasionally, you will undoubtedly discover that Spanish music "sends" me.
